Rules

General Rules of Conduct

1. Proper martial arts uniforms are required to be worn by both competitors and judges. The attire must be neat and clean.
2. Judges' decisions are final.
3. Coaching of any competitor in the ring is not permitted, and will lead to disqualification.
4. Spectators are not permitted on the competition floor.
5. Failure to abide by the rules may result in disqualification and ejection. All disputes are to be taken to the designated arbitrator.
6. All competitors must compete at the highest level they have earned in the martial arts. A competitor will not be allowed to compete in a division in which he/she has not earned that rank. Once a competitor competes as a black belt, he/she must always compete as a black belt.

Kata/Weapons

1. Each ring will have five judges.
2. Kata will be judged on precision of stance, technique, power, intensity, and fluidity of movement.
3. Traditional weapons preferred. Toothpick bos may receive a minor point deduction.
4. Competitors must approach judges, bow, state their name, style of martial art, and kata, then move back into the ring to begin. Upon completion of kata, the first three competitors will bow out of the ring, to be called back for scoring after the third kata. Each subsequent competitor will be scored upon completion of his or her kata.
5. For summation of final score, the high and low score of each competitor will be dropped from the total. In the event of a tie, the low score will be added back into the sum, then the high. If there is still a tie, the affected competitors will perform a tiebreaker.

Kumite

1. NO contact to the headgear will be permitted. Only light, non-malicious body contact is allowed. No techniques to joints of the body (knees, elbows, etc.). NO techniques to the face, groin, neck or spine are allowed.
2. Drawing of blood results in immediate disqualification.
3. All competitors must wear a mouthpiece and foam safety gear for head, hands, and feet. A groin protector is mandatory for male competitors. All equipment must be in good repair. Competitors must be properly equipped at the time their division starts.
4. Disrespecting and/or arguing with judges by competitors or spectators will not be tolerated and may result in disqualification and ejection from the event.
5. Competitors will bow to the head judge, to each other, take ready position, and begin on the head judge's command.
6. Kyu ranked competitors will compete for points. Blackbelts will compete for 2 continuous minutes.
7. Only full points will be rewarded, no half points.
8. Each point and contact call must be made by a majority of judges.
9. Valid target areas include the front of the torso above the belt, and any side region of the torso if the opponent has turned his or her back on the competitor.
10. Sweeping of the leg is not permitted. No throwing is allowed.
